

WHOLESALE TERRITORY LICENSE

One of the difficulties with providing any kind of support to your brokers is that you never know if they'll send you business in return. You could take them out to dinner, buy them golf balls, sponsor a seminar or even buy them leads. Still there's no guarantee they'll ever send you business. All of our online products now have a pricing option called the "Wholesaler Territory License". A territory license is useful because it give you total control over the amount of support you're providing for your brokers.
